Next Stop: TOY FAIR

The world's toymakers pause in New York to preview their newest products.

Birdcage Press

Palo Alto, Calif.-based Birdcage Press combines art and animals in 2007 to create the Go Fish For Wildlife ($9.95) card decks, with which Rummy, Crazy Eights and Snap! games can all be played. Each of the Mammals, Sea Creatures and Reptiles sets highlight 36 wild creatures with names in both English and Spanish, and include background information, fun facts and images by noted wildlife photographers. The company will also be promoting its other new releases: the Hello Rousseau! art activity book ($9.95); the Art Ditto ($24.95) multilingual memory game; American Art Ditto ($24.95); Close Up, a card-deck search game featuring great works of art ($9.95), and the Art Shark strategy game ($24.95).
