

Go Fish With T-Rex

A small award-winning education-minded publisher named Birdcage Books has come up with a really good card trick. They take subjects like dinosaurs, Egyptian treasures, and impressionist art, and allow kids to learn about them in a fun way by playing card games like Go Fish and Old Maid with cards that are imbued with beautiful renderings of the subject matter. They haven't introduced post-impressionism poker yet, but there are six new games coming in June. See www.birdcagebooks.com.
